IRRESPONSIBLE NURSES .- Attention has several times in late years been called to the fact that parents often run risks in trusting babtes and small children to the "tender mercies" of negro nurses, who, when out of the eight and hearing of fond mothers are prone to carry children where they are likely to take contagious diseases. It is no uncommon thing on Sunday afternoons to see negro nurses with little white children enter or emerge from smoky cribs in the several negro quarters of the city, the parents in the meantime supposing their offsprings are enjoying the pure air and sunshine. An instance occurred in the early part of the week which has caused more than one fond parent much anxiety. It will be remember ed that a colored man named Richard Collins was run over and killed by a train on the Washington and Ohio Railroad last Sunday morning. On Monday a small colored child died at the residence of the deceased a number of young colored women appearentered the house and kept the innocent babes breathing the foul air of the crowded room in close proximity to the corpse during the long funeral service a hich followed.

THREATS OF VIOLENCE -John M. Rye. who snot and killed J. J. Wheeler, near Nanj-moy Basch, is still in jail at Port Tobacco, Md., and the authorities are taking steps to protect him in case of an attempt at lynching, which is feared. Feeling runs high in the section where the shooting occurred. At every post-office and public place knots of men gather and discuss the shooting. Threats of lynching are freely indulged in by Wheeler's friends, but as yet no demonstration has been made. Bye, in speaking of the stration has been made. Rye, in speaking of the sheeting, said: "The reason that I shot Wheeler was that he was coming towards me after he had got out of his buggy, and had got as far as the fence, with his hands on the rail, and telling me he was going to have satisfaction. After he retused to stop, after my telling him to do so, I shot him." He further said Wheeler had locked up his neice in the school-room, and accused her of circulating false reports, and tried to injure the girl by making her out a liar, and for that he had sent word ing her out a liar, and for that he had sent word to Wheeler that he was no gentleman. Bye is sixty years old, a native of Charles county, and was a soldier during the war in Captain W. F. Dement's Confederate Artillery. He enlisted at Fredericksburg in 1861, and served three years He has been considered as a quarrelsome and meddle-ome man, and has not many friends. The feeling against him is very strong and bitter.

TO PREVENT A CONFLAGRATION AT MT. VERNON.-When the board of visitors of Mt. Vernon inspected that place last May they suggested that the several wood-fires be discontinged, as the sparks were liable to ignite the combustible material of which the house was built. A short time since a member of the board was notified by one of the lady regents who have immediate control of the property that the wood fires bad been discontinued and anthracite coal was now used. An additional reservoir to assist in flooding the house in case of fire has also been ordered. This news was rather grati-fying to the visitors, who had been led to believe that it was disputed that they had any say-so whatever in the management of the This impression was probably caused by the fact that for several years preceding 1889 no Virginia board of visitors was appointed, and consequently could not go to Mt. Vernon.-Richmond Dispatch,

Escaped.—The members of the chain gang as per a recent order of the City Council made their appearance in their striped suits to-day. The gang had not proceeded more than a square from the jail when one of them, Talcas Tate, took Franch leave carrying with him a bran-new pair of pastaloons. Capt. Banner Young could not stop the fleet darkey as he had then under his charge a gang of seven men. The prisoner is well-known by the members of the police.

AID WANTED.—The managers of the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Richmond appeal to the public for means to put up a hospital building. The large number of Confederate soldiers broken down in heal h has taxed the Board of Visito's to their ut-most to maintain the institution properly, and donations, no matter how small, will be and donations, no matter how small, appreciated. A circular asking for aid has been sent to the various Confederate camps throughout the State.

THE MARKET and the sidewalks surround ing the market building were crowded to day with country people and their produce. There was a bountiful supply of vegetables, fruits, &c., and prices are now approaching their minimum. The attendance of buyers was not so large as usual, owing to the absence of so many persons who are spending the summer in the country.

ARM BROKEN .- A little girl named Mattie Simms, seven years old, from Washington, who is visiting Mr. Wm. Dancan, near this city, fell in a ditch on that gentleman's
